

Privacy and Confidentiality

This agency maintains a policy of strict confidentiality with respect to all staff and clients. Access to information will be available only in accordance with a “need to know” policy. Unless otherwise required by Federal and/or state statute or regulations, no information will be released without written authorization from the reference staff member or client.

NDO Policy 101:2